

---

Dr. Linda Pittenger is a recognized leading industry expert and thought leader on Human Capital. She is a presenter on the largest stages of technology and HR. She has had a successful career in academia and industry. She is a tenured Associate Professor of Organizational Leadership at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, and also serves as a Leadership Expert in Residence and DuPont Endowed Chair of Leadership for Jacksonville University, where she teaches in the DBA and MBA programs. Her research has been published in some of the top management and psychology journals. She is a consultant to executives of some of the world's largest companies, and a certified executive coach.

Dr. Pittenger was the recipient of the 2021 ACBSP International Teaching Excellence Award, served as Past Chair of Leadership Development for the International Leadership Association and selected to be a Commissioner for President Obama's Tech America initiative, REAL, (Recommendations for Education and Advancement) responsible for recommending policy agenda for "Digital Promise".

Dr. Pittenger conceptualized, launched and then sold her business to Gartner, a Fortune 500 company, where she remained as Senior Vice President of research and consulting for three years post purchase. She has led organizational transformations at several Fortune 100 corporations such as Credit Suisse, Rogers Communications, JP Morgan Chase, among others. Her transformational work at an international bank was the subject of a MIT case study. Her leadership as Vice President of HR at AT&T directly impacted winning the Malcolm Baldrige national quality award. As Managing Director and Global Head of HR for Technology at Lehman Brothers, Dr. Pittenger participated in the largest bankruptcy in corporate America. She serves on several not-for-profit boards in northeast Florida.

lpitten@ju.edu